

Publisher and the Classroom

Microsoft Publisher

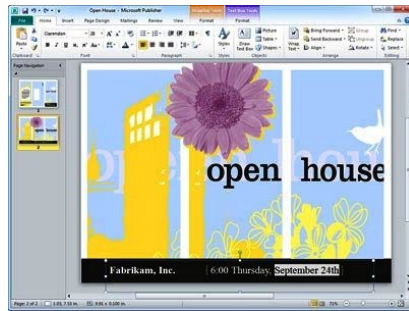

Microsoft Publisher is a desktop publishing software that is easy and simple to use.

can use a built in design.

Publisher has seen many different faces with the different versions that

It has basic built in fea-

Publisher 2010

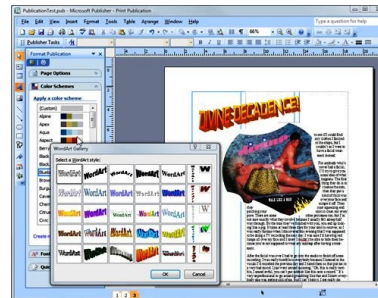

Publisher 2003

tures that allows novice and expert computer users to create several different types of publications which include but are not limited to newsletters, flyers, and banners.

With publisher the user can choose to create a blank document or that have been created, the latest version is 2010.

Microsoft Publisher is a wonderful tool that can be used in and outside of the classroom.

Publisher 2007

Publisher in the Classroom

Microsoft Publisher is a wonderful tool for the classroom.

Teachers and students use publisher for several different reasons.

Teachers use publisher to create announcements, certificates, newsletters, calendars, and other forms of communication.

Students also use publisher for many different reasons. They use it to create newsletters, posters, varies homework assignments.